Who we are

The Belgian-Italian Chamber of Commerce is a not-for-profit organization recognized by the Italian government. Under the Belgian law, it was founded in 1950 to promote contacts between Belgium and Italy.

The Chamber of Commerce is also part of Assocamerestero, the Association of Italian Chambers of Commerce Abroad representing:

- 84 Chambers in 61 countries
- 160 service points
- 20,000 members (88% local companies)
- 300,000 business contacts

The Belgian-Italian Chamber of Commerce, located in the heart of Brussels, close to the European Institutions, is the point of reference for all companies wishing to promote their business and expand their network of contacts in Italy and Belgium.

Educational Program

The talent competition is more and more crucial at the current time. CCBI helps its members to tackle this challenge with its educational programs. A new set of masters and classes have been developed in close partnership with international organisations and accredited training centres in Italy and with the support of its 20 years of Alumni.

IMES - Evening & Weekend Programme

post-graduate accelerated Master's programme provides students with an in-depth knowledge of the European Union's institutional structure in order to become an EU Project Consultant and Project Manager.

Webinar Europrogettazione

The course provides participants with all the necessary skills to write and manage a winning European project.

Summer school in Development Cooperation

The Course is intended to offer young graduates or undergraduates the opportunity to learn all aspects of European international development cooperation policy and related European funding programs.

Erasmus + and Horizon Europe courses

Courses for a deep analysis of the most relevant European programmes for innovation.

The Belgian-Italian Chamber of Commerce is the partner for you!

Special Projects

True Italian Taste is realised as part of the government programme 'The Extraordinary Italian Taste', which aims to enhance and promote authentic Italian food products.

The Belgo-Italian Chamber of Commerce developed the project in collaboration with 41 CCIE in 27 countries around the world and aims to raise awareness among foreign consumers on the consumption and conscious purchase of 100% Made in Italy food in order to combat the phenomenon of "Italian Sounding". True Italian Taste is intended to spread a greater knowledge of the characteristics of typicality, places of origin, and nutritional and PDO-PGI certification aspects..

Stay Export is a project of Unioncamere and the Italian Chambers of Commerce, implemented in cooperation with Assocamerestero and the CCIE, aimed at assisting small and medium-sized Italian companies interested in operating in foreign markets.

The Belgo-Italian Chamber of Commerce participated in this 6-month project, during which we supported SMEs in their repositioning and reactivation process leveraging internationalisation and digitisation.

Local Partners

The Belgian-Italian Chamber of Commerce is part of the "Sistema Italia". Together with the Italian Embassy in Brussels, ENIT, Istituto Italiano di Cultura and ITA we collaborate to provide support to all Italian companies wishing to operate in Belgium.

The Belgian-Italian Chamber of Commerce works also closely with crucial Belgian partners such as the Investment & Trade agencies respectively in Brussels, Wallonia and Flanders namely Hub Brussels, AWEX and FIT.

The Belgian-Italian Chamber of Commerce can also count, among others, on the partnership with Platinum Members such as KBC Brussels, one of the biggest banks in the Belgian capital, Calzedonia and Lardini, two excellencies of the Italian fashion sector.
